10) FIP Updates – Justin Collell

- a) Recap of Outreach – 1,578 visitors to the Home and Garden Idea Fair and Clark County Fair Booths
- b) Civil Infractions - All settled or paid other than Strunk infraction converted to delinquent tax
- c) Tansy Signs – New signs will be ordered soon
- d) Field Inspectors – Our two Field Inspector positions are now 12-month rather than 9-month
- e) Temporary worker budget reduced – Field Inspection may have one project position – there will not be as many people hired through the temporary agency
- f) Variable-leaf Milfoil – Four properties were treated. Warren Seely was not treated and has decided to pass on herbicide treatment and work with the blueberry farm doing manual control. Other properties may be treated this year due to the hybrid being officially listed.

11) Public Comment – None

12) Items from Board – Jerry Kolke

- a) Lee asked Justin to speak about Tansy at one of the Ridgefield Junction Neighborhood Association meetings
