MEETING AGENDA—Thursday 03/12/2020 7:00-8:30 p.m.
Featured Speaker: David Schmitt Assistant Chief, Fire District 6
David will let us know about exciting changes taking place under the leadership of newly promoted Fire Chief Kristan Maurer. This includes the newly constructed station and training facility.

Clark County Sheriff Office will be represented by our liaison Deputy Taylor Bossert. He will give a short overview of any crime trends in our neighborhood and offer helpful suggestions to avoid becoming a crime victim.

Other- we will host a discussion of "Brainstorming a Better Neighborhood" - what do you want to focus on to improve our area through the Neighborhood Association? In the past we have done Neighborhood Clean Ups, Emergency Preparation meetings, Neighborhood Garage sale, Summer Picnics.

At our next meeting in May we will focus on the new changes to the Senior Citizen's and Disabled Person's Exemption and Deferral Program. This is regarding the program to reduce property taxes for certain qualified individuals. County officials Peter Van Nortwick, Assessor and Alishia Topper, Treasurer will attend.

What types of speakers would you like to hear from? we have had Clark County Code Enforcement, Animal Control, Council for the Homeless, Volunteer Services, Public Works Dept. , County Councilors etc. If you have a topic or speaker you would like to suggest, please let us know.
