Origins of Phrases / Idioms

Honeymoon - Meaning: A holiday spent together by a newly married couple. Origin: According to tradition, a newlywed couple would have to drink a beverage with honey for an entire month for fertility and good luck.

Break a leg - Meaning: Good luck! Origin: It is believed that the phrase dates to WW1 Germany and a saying used by German actors "Hals -und Beinbruch" which translates to " a broken neck and a broken leg." Besides that, it still doesn't make sense why would you wish someone to break a leg? Well, as it turns out, popular folklore down through the ages encouraged people to wish others bad luck since it was believed that wishing someone good luck would tempt evil spirits. So, people started wishing each other to break a leg in order for them not to break a leg!

Crocodile Tears - Meaning: Tears of expression of sorrow that are insincere. Origin: Written in the 14th century, a book called "The travels of Sir John Mandeville" recounts a knight's adventures through Asia. In the book it says that crocodiles shed tears while eating a man they captured. Even though it is factually inaccurate, the phrase "crocodile tears" found its way into Shakespeare's work and became an idiom in the 16th century, symbolizing insincere grief.

Neighborhood Association
Mission:

The residents of the Hazel Dell area established the NE Hazel Dell Neighborhood Association (NEHDNA) in order to unite the common interests and promote the welfare of the area. The association is involved with a variety of matters, which affect the livability of the neighborhood and community in general.

All residents within the neighborhood association boundaries or neighboring areas not within an existing neighborhood association are welcome to attend and participate in the association.

If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact one of the officers or board members listed on this page. The NEHDNA does not subscribe to any religious affiliation or political party. Our desire is to work together for the common good of the neighborhood in which we all live. You don't have to live in the area to be a member or to come to the meetings! All are welcome.
