 When the Q&A session begins during the presentation, please type your comments into the chat window. We will read your questions aloud. We will alternate between questions in the meeting room and the on-line participants.

Heather Tischbein (Guest) So sorry to not be able to be there in person. I have had a covid exposure in the last five days...so keeping a distance.

Amy Arnold Greetings. Can you hear the chatter going on?

Lynde Wallick Thank you Heather

Heather Tischbein (Guest) I can hear the chatter.

Jackie Lane (Guest) what is the 'sustainability plan'? it looks like you already have a master plan... can you explain the difference?

Heather Tischbein (Guest) What is the plan to permanently protect The Farm as ag land so that I could not ever be developed for residential or commercial purposes? To protect the entire property in perpetuity for food production?

Lynde Wallick Please type in any questions or comments you have for the Q&A session, and I will read them to the room.

Jackie Lane (Guest) Cant hear that please repeat?

Lynde Wallick We have about five minutes left for questions.

Robin Summers
(Guest) how is and will be the farm be paid for

Jackie Lane
(Guest) do any other 'parks' turn a profit? why should Heritage farm?

Heather
Tischbein (Guest) Yes...do other parks have sustainability plans?

Lynde Wallick These will be the last questions asked from online. You can leave your questions in the chat and they will be recorded. You can also email questions and comments to the email posted in the chat.

After the Open House you can submit written comments to:

Jean Avery
(Guest) Thank you for NOT segmenting the farmland as you consider trails. The farm is a great source of food for the Food Bank.

Pete DuBois Thank you for bringing the community together around this gem of the county
