

78th Street Heritage Farm Advisory Team Meeting – Online Chat

Thursday, January 19, 2023, 4:00pm to 5:30 PM
Virtual Meeting Via Microsoft Teams

Ed Hamilton Rosales (Guest)	Sandy we are co-hosts
Ed Hamilton Rosales (Guest)	The original presentation and the meetings with the county have always provided this description. MY sound isnt' working. the farm is not a registered historic site
Ed Hamilton Rosales (Guest)	according to the county site the farm is not. The Historic Trust lists the main building and the cemetery as a historic site; not the farm. nope So the county Historic Preservation Commission has this website: https://clark.wa.gov/community-planning/historic-preservation Interestingly, Heritage Farm isn't listed under their historic locations.
Matthew Baum	Ed on the website it's listed as the clark county poor farm
Ed Hamilton Rosales (Guest)	When I looked at the map it isn't there.
David Stipe	https://clark.wa.gov/community-planning/clark-county-poor-farm
Ed Hamilton Rosales (Guest)	Grants David, on the site your provided it lists the nomination form, not the formal listing. back to the link I provided, under Historic Sites the "poor farm" , Heritage Farm and it's surroundings are not listed.
Lynde Wallick	Ed, the site you provided, the labels to the columns are not visible unless you mouse over them. The middle column is just the date of some of the structures. The entire site is listed in the left hand column. The entire site is listed with the National and State historic registries as well.
Ed Hamilton Rosales (Guest)	Yes Matt lets talk.
