QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

UPDATED: APRIL 1, 2025

	QUESTION	ANSWER
1.	Does the credentialing agency for the Incident Commander and Safety Officer positions have to be issued by FEMA?	Credentialing agencies outside of FEMA may be considered on a case by case basis so long as the credentials are a FEMA compliant all hazards certification.
2.	Do certifications have to be Type III?	The requirement is Type III level or greater.
