

CLARK COUNTY
WASHINGTON

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
DEVELOPMENT ENGINEERING

Final Engineering Plan Review (ENG)

Submittal Requirements

Rev 6.24.20

Working together. Securing your safety. Protecting your investment.

Submittal Checklist

The following checklist identifies information to be included. All items must be submitted before the submittal can be accepted. All submittals not determined to be complete will be returned to the applicant for corrections.

- Cover sheet / letter of transmittal
 - Development Engineering application form
 - Application fee
 - Submittal requirement checklist
 - One (1) final Technical Information Report (TIR)
 - One (1) plan set – full-size civil, site and landscape sheets
 - Copy of all signed staff reports or Hearing Examiner's decision with notations or narrative of how each condition of approval has been addressed
 - Construction Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plan documentation (SWPPP) as specified by Minimum Requirement #2 of the Clark County Stormwater Manual at www.clark.wa.gov/public-works/stormwater-code-and-manual, submittal to the Responsible Official at the applicant's discretion can be done at submission of final engineering plans or 10 working days prior to the pre-construction conference.
- MUST be approved prior to submittal of DIN (Development Inspection) and SWI (Erosion Control) cases and scheduling for preconstruction conference.
- Final Site Plan Review (FSR) application submitted for commercial projects - contact Land Use Review, landuse@clark.wa.gov, 564.360.2375 for further information

Optional electronic submittal: One (1) CD OR FTP site upload