

proud past, promising future

CLARK COUNTY
WASHINGTON

COMMUNITY PLANNING

Mission:

Community Planning works cooperatively with its community partners to improve Clark County's long-term quality of life.

Values:

We work as a team with integrity.
We are resourceful and innovative.
We learn, change, and improve.

Guiding Principles:

Commitment
Communication
Credibility
Preserving the quality of life in Clark County.

Commitment:

Empowered employees
Working together in good humor
Positive, can-do attitudes
Problem solving
Flexibility

Communication:

Documenting public involvement processes
Collaboration and cooperation with the community and agencies
Leveraging our investments through partnerships
Keeping employees and public informed
Responsive to the public

Credibility:

Personal and organizational integrity
Protecting the public trust
Fiscal accountability
Protecting public investments

Preserving the quality of life in Clark County:

Respect for the natural environment
Protecting our cultural heritage
Sustainable public policy