

Clark County 2019 DRAFT Action Plan

Executive Summary

AP-05 Executive Summary - 24 CFR 91.200(c), 91.220(b)

1. Introduction

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) fund and the Home Investment Partnerships Program (HOME) fund are two federal grant programs administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). These programs provide annual grants to cities and counties to carry out community development activities, improve affordable housing options, and provide improved community facilities and services. Usage of CDBG and HOME funds must meet a number of parameters set nationally by HUD. Federal regulation requires that these funds focus on projects that benefit low- to moderate-income residents.

2. Summarize the objectives and outcomes identified in the Plan

The administration of these programs follows a cycle that includes the drafting of a Consolidated Plan, an Action Plan, and an annual evaluation. The Clark County Consolidated Housing and Community Development Plan (Consolidated Plan) identifies the County's community and housing needs and outlines the strategies to address those needs over a five-year period. Goals identified in the County's Consolidated Plan include: Affordable Housing Development and Preservation, Community and Neighborhood Sustainability, and Alleviation of Homelessness. The annual Action Plan defines the specific activities to be undertaken during each program year to address the priorities established. The Consolidated Annual Performance Evaluation Report (CAPER) is then conducted at the end of the program year to assess activity accomplishments.

3. Evaluation of past performance

As reported in the PY 2017 Consolidated Annual Performance Evaluation Report (CAPER), Clark County completed a number of important projects last year. Over 20 activities were completed with 15 partners. Four neighborhood pedestrian improvements were completed, 15 low-income homeowners had repairs made to their homes, 6 families bought their first home and 10 small business received technical assistance. In the last program year, there were three new social service facilities constructed with the help of CDBG funding including a senior day center, a pregnant and parenting women's recovery center, and a resource center. There was also a mental health clinic that was upgraded with CDBG funding. Clark County continued to show a steady progress in meeting the goals and implementation strategies of the Consolidated Plan and developing partnerships for affordable housing. Additional funds were leveraged for projects undertaken in the County.

The Clark County Housing Rehabilitation Program continues to rehabilitate owner-occupied units in conjunction with the Weatherization program. Because of the economy, extremely low vacancy rate, increasing rental costs and changing real estate conditions, homeless assistance continues to be a high priority.

Clark County has continued to utilize its coordinated-entry Housing Solutions Center, where people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness can apply for and access the best-fit housing program from among 30 different programs. New construction of no-barrier homeless housing and behavioral health housing with supportive services has been completed recently and plans for additional affordable units are underway.

4. Summary of Citizen Participation Process and consultation process

Public notification and request for review and comment on the 2019 Action Plan was sent by email to all those listed on Clark County's Stakeholder list, this includes over 250 people who represent cities, housing and homeless service nonprofits, housing developers, community advisory boards, other county departments, transportation agencies, Native American representatives, school districts, neighborhood foundations, Hispanic service providers, housing authorities, workforce agencies, senior providers, and Veteran agencies. The notification and request for comment was also advertised to the general public through Clark County's Facebook and Twitter accounts.

A public hearing will be held May 7, 2019 to summarize the projects in the plan and request additional public comment. This hearing was broadcast on CVTV, the local cable television station that airs all government/public meetings.

AP-10 Consultation – 91.100, 91.200(b), 91.215(l)

1. Introduction

Clark County's institutional structure for implementation of the Consolidated Plan Strategies and Action Plan is strong. A variety of agencies and organizations play key roles in delivering and managing housing and community development programs throughout the county. Every city within the county (other than the City of Vancouver) participates and has an equal vote on the Urban County Policy Board (UCPB), which oversees CDBG and HOME funding. Projects funded by the UCPB include street, sidewalk, stormwater and other infrastructure improvements, community parks, improvement of shelters and community centers, small business assistance, homeownership programs, housing construction and rehabilitation, as well as tenant-based rental assistance programs.

Provide a concise summary of the jurisdiction's activities to enhance coordination between public and assisted housing providers and private and governmental health, mental health and service agencies (91.215(l))

To enhance coordination of public, private, and nonprofit housing providers, human service agencies, and social service providers, Clark County will:

- Continue to work with other jurisdictions and agencies within the County to prioritize housing needs, provide services, and maximize the use of federal, state, and local funds for affordable housing, community development, and related services throughout the County;
- Facilitate coordination of the Early Adopter model with the state Health Care Authority to integrate Medicaid patient physical health services with mental health and chemical dependency services;
- Continue to participate in coordination efforts initiated by the Council for the Homeless for housing, shelter and other services for those who are homeless;
- Facilitate groups of service providers to provide information on current projects, share information about funding sources and regulation updates, collaborate on projects and problem-solve;
- Continue to work with the Vancouver Housing Authority and public housing residents to identify gaps in housing for households who are low-income and/or have special needs and develop housing programs to meet these needs; and
- Continue to plan and coordinate with Community Funds recipients via periodic meetings and reports from providers. This has encouraged a close working relationship with various service providers throughout the county who are addressing poverty and homelessness issues.

Describe coordination with the Continuum of Care and efforts to address the needs of homeless persons (particularly chronically homeless individuals and families, families with children, veterans, and unaccompanied youth) and persons at risk of homelessness.

Clark County actively participates in the community-wide Continuum of Care (CoC) planning process, the local CoC Steering Committee and supports the local Continuum of Care application and worked to implement the Clark County Homeless Action Plan. Clark County supports the following initiatives:

- Creation and operation of Lincoln Place, a 30-unit apartment complex utilizing the Housing First model to serve tenants who were previously chronically homeless and identified as the most vulnerable people in the community.
- Council for the Homeless Housing Solutions Center (HSC). The Housing Solutions Center serves as a coordinated assessment center that is the entry point for those in the community who are homeless or at-risk of homelessness and needing housing assistance. Direct assessment and HSC referral was set up with local outreach programs, systems of care, Veterans and youth programs. All HOME-funded tenant-based rental assistance programs must utilize the HSC for tenant referrals.

- The Council for the Homeless and Clark County continue to participate in advocacy and planning activities through the Washington Low-Income Housing Alliance, United States Interagency Council on Homelessness and National Alliance to End Homelessness.
- Clark County, the Vancouver Housing Authority, Council for the Homeless and other local agencies continued to advocate at the state and local levels for increased funding for services and facilities for people who are homeless.
- All shelter programs are required to provide training and appropriate accommodations for people who identify as transgender per CPD-15-02.

Clark County also received Consolidated Homeless Grant (CHG) and Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) funding from the WA State Department of Commerce and allocated these funds to 12 different community programs.

The local Continuum of Care, called the Coalition of Service Providers for the Homeless, facilitated workgroups to move specific strategies in the Clark County Homeless Action Plan forward. The workgroups are:

1. Data Management and Analysis
2. CoC Steering Committee
3. Coordinated Assessment Workgroup
4. Housing First Cohort
5. Veterans by Name List Workgroup

Describe consultation with the Continuum(s) of Care that serves the jurisdiction's area in determining how to allocate ESG funds, develop performance standards for and evaluate outcomes of projects and activities assisted by ESG funds, and develop funding, policies and procedures for the operation and administration of HMIS

Clark County receives ESG funding through the Washington State Department of Commerce. Staff work with the local Clark County CoC and CoC Steering Committee to identify funding priorities, gather feedback on ESG fund allocations, share performance progress, review policies and procedures and grade HMIS data quality.

2. Describe Agencies, groups, organizations and others who participated in the process and describe the jurisdiction's consultations with housing, social service agencies and other entities

AP-12 Participation – 91.105, 91.200(c)

1. Summary of citizen participation process/Efforts made to broaden citizen participation

Summarize citizen participation process and how it impacted goal-setting

Clark County follows a citizen participation plan that addresses the following issues: participation, access to meetings, access to information, access to records, publishing the plan, public hearings, notice of hearings, public comments, technical assistance, complaints, and amendments. The Urban County Policy Board (UCPB) developed the Action Plan through an open process that included participation from service providers, public agencies, nonprofit organizations and county citizens. All public meetings, workshops and hearings are held in facilities that are accessible to people with disabilities. Upon request, Clark County will provide translators at public hearings and meetings. Telephonic oral language service (interpretation) is also available. Meeting notices are sent to organizations representing non-English speaking residents of Clark County. Reasonable accommodations are also provided to disabled persons, or non-English speaking persons needing assistance in reviewing CDBG/HOME program materials or documents.

Expected Resources

AP-15 Expected Resources – 91.220(c)(1,2)

Introduction

The table below lists the resources expected to be available in Clark County to address the priority needs and specific objectives identified in the Action Plan.

This includes rental assistance, shelter operations and other activities that support moving people from homelessness to stable housing.

Table 5 - Expected Resources – Priority Table

Explain how federal funds will leverage those additional resources (private, state and local funds), including a description of how matching requirements will be satisfied

Clark County will take actions to assist other agencies and organizations in applying for all available funds and leveraging other resources to implement housing strategies and programs. Clark County will also work with a network of representatives from the private lending community, financial experts, and private and nonprofit housing developers and consultants who can provide technical expertise in packaging development proposals. Clark County will also submit letters of support and verification of consistency for project applications which support the goals and objectives found in the Consolidated Plan. The Clark County HOME funds, in many cases, provide gap financing for projects receiving HOME funds through the State of Washington, Low-Income Housing Tax Credits, or bonds. Because there are not enough HOME funds to fully fund developments, project sponsors must leverage other fund sources in large amount.

The CDBG and HOME applications strongly encourage leveraging of other funds. CDBG applicants can receive up to 10 additional points when project applications are scored for committing a higher level of match to their project. The HOME program encourages leveraging additional funds by awarding up to five additional points for HOME-eligible match exceeding the 25% minimum HOME requirement. Some of the HOME projects include Washington State Housing Trust Funds which meet the HOME match requirement. In addition, a few projects have various fees waived and provide services to tenants that also meet the HOME match requirements.

If appropriate, describe publically owned land or property located within the jurisdiction that may be used to address the needs identified in the plan

No publically owned land or property has been identified for use in meeting the objectives of this Action Plan.

Discussion

Before the 2019 allocation amounts were released, the Urban County Policy Board recommended that any additional funding or reduction in funding be allocated to projects based on the scoring awarded, with the highest scored applications being prioritized for full funding and the lowest scoring applications or partially-funded applications reduced or increased based on the funding available. As of May 1, 2019, actual CDBG and HOME allocation amounts will be known and project funding will be adjusted to align with the actual allocation amounts per the Urban County Policy Board's recommendation.

Projects

AP-35 Projects – 91.220(d)

Introduction

The following projects were selected by the Urban County Policy Board (UCPB) after review and scoring of applications submitted for funding. Projects are reviewed by staff to ensure that they will meet all federal program requirements prior to review by the UCPB for selection and funding. The UCPB does not fund public service activities, infrastructure projects within the City of Vancouver or planning activities. Community projects that are located in the City of Vancouver but serve both county and city residents can be funded by Clark County only if they are also funded by the City of Vancouver and funding is proportionally split based on the populations served.

Table 7 - Project Information

Describe the reasons for allocation priorities and any obstacles to addressing underserved needs

The Urban County Policy Board scores and ranks applications based on the need in the community, the proposed solution to meet the need, the benefit to low-income people, management ability, associated services and match contribution. Clark County sets aside $20,000 in CDBG funds for project contingency. Although this funding is available for any project that may need a small amount of contingency funding, it is shown under the Homeowner Rehabilitation activity in the Action Plan set up. If this funding is not needed for contingency costs, it will be awarded with the 2020 funding.

AP-50 Geographic Distribution – 91.220(f)

Description of the geographic areas of the entitlement (including areas of low-income and minority concentration) where assistance will be directed

The housing and community development needs of the county are dispersed throughout Clark County. Many projects are not geographically specific, but intended to benefit citizens throughout the county. Other projects may be site-specific and intended to serve a localized population. When available, this information is included with the project description. Projects receiving federal funds from the County will target the entire county outside the City of Vancouver, which is its own entitlement community. Generally, new construction is considered to benefit areas within urban growth boundaries. New housing, community centers and senior centers may only be located within urban growth boundaries when funded, even though these projects may benefit persons living outside urban growth boundaries.

Clark County	100

Table 8 - Geographic Distribution

Rationale for the priorities for allocating investments geographically

No specific location within Clark County has been targeted for funding prioritization.

Discussion

The county's homeowner rehabilitation program, any homebuyer programs, and infrastructure improvements are only completed within Clark County's jurisdiction, including the City of Woodland but outside the City of Vancouver. Social service activities may be completed within the City of Vancouver, but the only funding Clark County will contribute is proportionate to the number of Clark County residents that will be served by the project or program as allowable by Housing and Urban Development. This is in agreement with 24 CFR 570.309, which states: CDBG funds may assist an activity outside the jurisdiction of the grantee only if the grantee determines that such an activity is necessary to further the purposes of the Act and the recipient's community development objectives, and that reasonable benefits from the activity will accrue to residents within the jurisdiction of the grantee. The grantee shall document the basis for such determination prior to providing CDBG funds for the activity. The HOME regulations at 24 CFR 92.201(a)(2) provide that "a local participating jurisdiction may only invest its HOME funds within its boundaries, or in joint projects within the boundaries of contiguous local jurisdictions which serve residents of both jurisdictions." The only time Clark County will invest its HOME funds in a project within the City of Vancouver, is when the City also makes a financial contribution to the project and the project will benefit residents of both jurisdictions.

Affordable Housing

AP-55 Affordable Housing – 91.220(g)

Introduction

Certain populations require special housing and supportive services. People affected by substance use disorders, people with mental illness, people who are frail/elderly, survivors of domestic violence, people with developmental disabilities and those living with HIV/AIDS characteristically sustain themselves on incomes well below area median. For members of these communities, Clark County seeks to improve access to safe, affordable, and accessible housing, including opportunities for homeownership.

Types of housing needed to serve people with special needs include permanent low-cost housing for those who can live independently, permanent supportive housing, transitional housing for those who want to move to independent living, housing for people with multiple diagnoses, accessible housing, and short-term emergency shelters designed to address immediate crises. Many of these households require housing assistance, treatment, case management and/or other supportive services. These services are provided locally using Community Funds that are contracted to nonprofit agencies specializing in working with special populations.

Discussion

The 235 homeless households represented include the 146 households that will benefit from rehabilitation work at Orchards Inn and 91 households assisted with tenant-based rental assistance (TBRA). All of Clark County's TBRA funding is provided as a rapid-rehousing model for households who are literally homeless and assessed through Coordinated Entry. The 63 non-homeless households supported with affordable housing include the 10 single-family homes that Habitat for Humanity is proposing to develop, the 3 households who will purchase their first home with the help of Proud Ground's last trust program, the 6 affordable units that Second Step plans to acquire and the 26 new units of affordable workforce apartment units that will be developed at Grand Boulevard. Five of these units will be set aside for households which include a member with a disability. In addition, 18 homeowners will be assisted with housing repairs so that they can maintain their housing safely and affordably.

DRAFT

AP-60 Public Housing – 91.220(h)

Introduction

The mission of the Vancouver Housing Authority (VHA) is to provide opportunities to people who experience barriers to housing because of income, disability, or special needs in an environment which preserves personal dignity, and in a manner which maintains the public trust. In order to fulfill that mission, the VHA owns and manages numerous affordable housing units and operates several subsidized housing programs. Foremost among these are the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program and providing subsidized housing for approximately 3,400 households. In addition, the VHA owns 1,600 units that are not subsidized but are affordable to household earning less than 80% AMI. Starting in 1999, the VHA was selected by HUD to participate in a new demonstration program called Moving to Work (MTW). This program provides the VHA the opportunity to design and test innovative, locally-designed strategies that use Federal dollars more efficiently, help residents find employment and become self-sufficient, and increase housing choices for low-income families. MTW gives PHAs exemptions from many existing Public Housing and Housing Choice Voucher rules and more flexibility with how they use their federal funds.

Actions planned during the next year to address the needs to public housing

While VHA currently has no properties designated as "Public Housing" by HUD's definition, projects that are under development in 2019 include:

Caples Terrace Apartments - a 28-unit apartment complex for homeless young adults.

Bridgeview Education and Employment Resource Center - 8,900 square feet of space housing classrooms, meeting space, a computer lab, teaching kitchen, office space and more.

Meadows for Second Step Housing - 30 units of affordable apartment units for people with physical or behavioral health needs.

Meriwether Place for Columbia Nonprofit Housing - a 30-unit apartment complex for homeless people with mental health challenges.

Rhododendron Place - 30 units for residents with special needs.

Tenny Creek Assisted Living - 40 units for people who need additional support for chronic mental illness.

Actions to encourage public housing residents to become more involved in management and participate in homeownership

The Vancouver Housing Authority has a Clark County Resident Council (CCRC), which serves as a voice for residents of VHA subsidized housing. The Council serves as an advisory board to the VHA; it is a recognized 501(c)(3) organization and sponsors activities and grants that benefit residents.

Established in 1993, the CCRC's mission is to build community pride and responsibility through improved safety, services, and property improvements. It is a grass roots organization composed, created, and managed by residents.

Each adult resident listed on a VHA lease is considered a general member of the Clark County Resident Council. General members have voting privileges and may be elected as officers. The Clark County Resident Council holds quarterly meetings the second Tuesday of February, May, August, and November. The meetings are a chance to hear committee reports, address resident issues, and support individual resident concerns. The meetings may include a speaker. Resident Council meetings are also a time for social interaction and fun. The CCRC supports the Christmas Project, the Block Party, the Skyline Park Party and other Community Center activities and programs.

The VHA also has a Family Self-Sufficiency Program. This program provides case management, resources, support, and structured classroom time through the GOALS program. A Case Manager helps identify and outline self-sufficiency goals and steps to get there. By linking education and training, employment, financial management, homeownership, and other resources, they provide the support, encouragement, and tools tenants need to achieve self-sufficiency. As an incentive and reward for participants, as they increase their income while in the program, a special savings account is set aside for them which earns interest. The money is theirs when they completed their self-sufficiency goals and graduate.

If the PHA is designated as troubled, describe the manner in which financial assistance will be provided or other assistance

The Vancouver Housing Authority is not designated as troubled.

Discussion

Clark County has a strong relationship with the Vancouver Housing Authority and regularly attends meetings with this organization.

DRAFT

AP-65 Homeless and Other Special Needs Activities – 91.220(i)

Introduction

Clark County worked toward reducing and ending homelessness primarily by addressing homeless strategies with Document Recording Fees that are specifically targeted toward ending homelessness. The primary coordinator for the county's homeless services is the Council for the Homeless, a local nonprofit leader in the community's efforts to prevent and end homelessness.

Describe the jurisdictions one-year goals and actions for reducing and ending homelessness including:

Reaching out to homeless persons (especially unsheltered persons) and assessing their individual needs

Clark County providers reach out to the unsheltered homeless population in the following ways:

- Build on the existing shelter entry system to include coordinated access to all housing opportunities, including those for youth, families, elderly, veterans, and those who are chronically homeless or at-risk of homelessness.
- Increase the support for people who are homeless and applying for SSI/SSDI by offering SOAR training to volunteers, peers and homeless system professionals annually.
- Provide consumer focused resource access fairs or drop-ins such as, project homeless connect and Veterans Stand Down on an annual basis.
- Support shared housing programs in Clark County and provide outreach and information to system providers.
- Create direct connections from outreach programs for permanent supportive housing options.
- Ensure the main focus of community outreach programs are on housing stability.
- Increase linkages between systems to enhance holistic planning and case management.
- a full SOAR initiative to effectively engage and efficiently move those who are homeless and have disabilities onto SSI/SSDI.
- a peer navigator program to support those who are at-risk of homelessness or homeless.
- Access centers for those who are homeless and for specific populations.

Addressing the emergency shelter and transitional housing needs of homeless persons

To address the emergency shelter and transitional housing needs for people who are homeless, Clark County's strategies include:

- Support current emergency shelter and transitional housing programs with operating and maintenance resources.
- Support current emergency shelter and transitional housing programs with service resources and case management.
- Increase transitional housing plus support options for Veterans.
- Maintain the current emergency shelter and transitional housing programs until analysis shows it is feasible to transition housing to permanent supported housing. This is not a 1:1 trade of housing and services by program type.
- Continue to fund and increase coordinated access to current shelter and outreach programs.
- Strengthen linkages between the shelter access point, outreach programs and housing programs.

- Reduce barriers to shelter that make it challenging for consumers to access or sustain housing.
- Create a system to divert households from shelters to most appropriate housing options.
- Increase urgent access to emergency shelter and decrease need, by increasing permanent supported housing and homelessness prevention options.

Helping homeless persons (especially chronically homeless individuals and families, families with children, veterans and their families, and unaccompanied youth) make the transition to permanent housing and independent living, including shortening the period of time that individuals and families experience homelessness, facilitating access for homeless individuals and families to affordable housing units, and preventing individuals and families who were recently homeless from becoming homeless again

Clark County is working to make sure that homelessness is prevented or as briefly-experienced as possible. This is done with the following goals and actions:

- Create a rapid re-housing program to reintegrate youth who are transitioning out of foster care or who are being released from juvenile facilities into stable housing.
- Work to establish additional discharge planning and re-entry procedures from hospitals, jails, prisons, mental health institutions, detox and other treatment programs.
- Create additional rapid re-housing programs to divert or move households from emergency shelters into stable housing.
- Increase the number of rapid re-housing opportunities for people who would do not need the long-term support of Permanent Supported Housing.
- Provide rapid re-housing options for those exiting systems of care.
- Establish options for people who are medically fragile and being discharged from hospitals or other institutions.
- Support housing stability for those being released from jail or prison by advocating for offenders, including sex offenders to have their public benefits re-instated as soon as they are discharged.
- Reduce the household waiting time between filling out an application and obtaining stable housing within all rapid re-housing programs.
- Advocate for the criminal justice system to provide housing plans, long and short-term housing subsidies and case management for offenders.
- Create a peer navigator/mentor system to support those re-entering the community, including sex offenders.

Helping low-income individuals and families avoid becoming homeless, especially extremely low-income individuals and families and those who are: being discharged from publicly funded institutions and systems of care (such as health care facilities, mental health facilities, foster care and other youth facilities, and corrections programs and institutions); or, receiving assistance from public or private agencies that address housing, health, social services, employment, education, or youth needs.

Clark County Targeted Homeless Prevention strategies include:

Provide flexible funding for rental costs and other supportive services for youth and and other culturally specific households, where prevention has been identified as an effective intervention.

Clark County Homeless Diversion strategies include:

Increase the availability of flexible assistance funds to divert individuals and families from entering homelessness, including but not limited to transportation, food, childcare, education, utility, medical and dental emergencies, and housing costs.

- Ensure families do not become homeless due to code enforcement actions by sustaining funds that can help relocate individuals and families to decent and safe housing.
- Continue coordination with DSHS to assist families in rapidly accessing emergency income support and other services.
- Increase flexibility of resources to allow programs to meet the varying needs of households, as identified by assessments.
- Move beyond one-time eviction prevention payments to providing diversion coaching which explores a household's resources, strengths, barriers and promotes client led solutions.
- Enhance coordination and information sharing among diversion providers to maximize existing diversion dollars and streamline services.
- Create new opportunities for youth to explore their post high school options and receive support as they plan for their future.
- Work with schools to help them provide resource information to students or families about community services that might be relevant to their needs.
- Focus on reducing re-user rates, extending case-management and supportive services for individuals and families that have completed programs, but find they still need a few additional services.

Discussion

The City of Vancouver has taken strides to address homelessness by implementing a local Affordable Housing Fund and developing a Navigation day center so that people experiencing homelessness have a place to be during the day where they can address personal hygiene needs and access resources that they need. Both of these actions taken by the City of Vancouver should help the broader community address our housing crisis over the next few years.

AP-75 Barriers to affordable housing – 91.220(j)

Introduction

Clark County works to eliminate barriers to affordable housing in multiple ways. Clark County funds multiple housing-first programs, credit repair and landlord debt reduction assistance, tenant education with a landlord guarantee fund, and a Housing Solutions Center which helps people to overcome personal barriers when looking for housing.

Actions it planned to remove or ameliorate the negative effects of public policies that serve as barriers to affordable housing such as land use controls, tax policies affecting land, zoning ordinances, building codes, fees and charges, growth limitations, and policies affecting the return on residential investment

Clark County's 20 year Comprehensive Plan, 2015-2035, which includes a Housing Element to identify the need for, and establish mechanisms that will lead to the construction and preservation of decent housing for all economic segments of the Clark County population was approved by the Clark County Council on June 21, 2016. The plan was appealed, and limited aspects of the plan are under review. Housing affordability is a key component within the Growth Management legislation. Housing affordability will be affected by policies adopted in the other elements including transportation, public facilities, utilities, open space and recreation, land use and rural lands. Likewise, the pattern and density of housing development will affect costs to the county and its residents for needed services such as water lines, sewer lines, transit service, fire protection, etc.

Clark County actively participates in the Homeless Continuum of Care (CoC), and maintains representation on the Board of the Council for the Homeless, the coordinating entity of the CoC. Besides providing direct services related to rehousing and housing stability, the Council for the Homeless is active in advocacy of all issues related to access to housing, including Affordable Housing. Currently, the Council for the Homeless is the backbone organization for advocacy for tenant protections in the City and County.

Clark County is also an active participant in the Regional Fair Housing Partnership, an ad-hoc workgroup composed of staff from Clark County, City of Vancouver, Multnomah County, Clackamas County, Washington County, City of Portland, City of Gresham, State of Oregon and the Fair Housing Council of Oregon.

Discussion

AP-85 Other Actions – 91.220(k)

Introduction

Clark County has taken several actions to help address underserved needs, affordable housing, lead-based paint, those in poverty and coordination efforts, as described below.

Actions planned to address obstacles to meeting underserved needs

The primary obstacle to meeting underserved needs in our community has been, and continues to be, lack of funding. There is a high unmet need for housing and supportive services for seniors and people with special needs in Clark County and it would cost more than $18 million to address this need. Clark County completed an Aging Readiness Plan in February 2013. It found that as the baby boomer generation reaches retirement age, the number of Clark County residents 60 and older is estimated to have a projected growth rate of 158% from 2005 to 2030. By 2030, one in four Clark County residents will be 60 or older. In 2016, the Commission on Aging focused on housing needs for seniors and focused on affordability and accessibility and the importance of aging in place. This plan encourages new housing construction to be accessible and ensure that neighborhoods are functional, connected and accessible for all people.

To try to meet the needs of the underserved with the current funding available, Clark County operates a homeowner rehabilitation program to provide assistance to disabled and elderly homeowners who live in homes that are not accessible or are in poor condition. Clark County also assisted the following:

- The Clark County Accessibility Modification Program, a program that builds accessibility improvements for those with disabilities, so that they can remain in their homes.
- The Clark County Emergency Home Repair Program repairs housing problems that present an imminent threat to the health and safety of low-income households and the community.

Actions planned to foster and maintain affordable housing

The County also supports affordable housing by:

- Providing funds each year for the rehabilitation of owner-occupied housing for people of low- and moderate-income,
- Awarding CDBG and HOME funding to a nonprofit land trust to ensure that single-family homes purchased are affordable to low-income, first-time homebuyers, and remain affordable at resale.
- Providing low-interest loans through the HOME and CDBG programs assisting in the development of many housing projects creating additional rental units, and
- Preserving the housing stock in Clark County through support of the Clark County Housing Preservation Program.

Actions planned to reduce lead-based paint hazards

To evaluate and reduce lead-based paint hazards during the program year, Clark County will:

- Coordinate public and private efforts to reduce lead-based paint hazards in residential units;
- Participate in region-wide efforts by agencies to reduce lead-based paint hazards;
- Follow the existing Housing Preservation Program policies regarding lead hazard evaluation, reduction, and education activities;
- Continue to train Housing Preservation staff on lead-based paint procedures;
- Pursue funds available to help identify and control lead-based paint hazards in both tenant- and owner-occupied housing; and

- Support and promote comprehensive public health programs aimed at education and testing, especially for low- and moderate-income households and households at risk.

Actions planned to reduce the number of poverty-level families

Poverty is a complex problem that must be addressed at the local, state, and federal level. Strategies to alleviate poverty must focus on a range of services to reflect a continuum of needs and progress toward self-sufficiency. People who are homeless need basic services such as shelter, food, clothing, and health care. People at risk of homelessness need transportation, emergency assistance, childcare, case management, education, and household skills training. Finally, as households become more stabilized, they need job training and job opportunities which provide livable wages.

Clark County can impact only some of the causes of poverty. The County encourages employers that pay a living wage, supports housing and human service providers that offer a continuum of services necessary for self-sufficiency, and develops or continues programs aimed at reducing the number of households in poverty. Funds distributed by Clark County have provided additional programs that address poverty and homelessness. Clark County Community Services is the designated Community Action Agency for CSBG funding and administers this anti-poverty funding by contracting funds to nonprofit providers that operate programs aimed at fighting poverty.

Actions planned to develop institutional structure

Clark County's institutional structure for implementation of the Consolidated Plan Strategies Action Plan is strong. A variety of agencies and organizations play key roles in delivering and managing housing and community development programs throughout the county. Every city within the county (other than the City of Vancouver) participates and has an equal vote on the Urban County Policy Board (UCPB), which oversees CDBG and HOME funding. Projects funded by the UCPB include street, sidewalk, stormwater and other infrastructure improvements, community parks, improvement of shelters and community centers, homeownership programs, housing construction and rehabilitation, as well as TBRA programs.

Actions planned to enhance coordination between public and private housing and social service agencies

To enhance coordination of public, private, and nonprofit housing providers, human service agencies, and social service providers, Clark County will:

- Continue to work with other jurisdictions and agencies within the County to prioritize housing needs, provide services, and maximize the use of federal, state, and local funds for affordable housing, community development, and related services throughout the County;
- Continue to participate in coordination efforts initiated by the Council for the Homeless for housing, shelter and other services for those who are homeless;
- Facilitate groups of service providers to provide information on current projects, share information about funding sources and regulation updates, collaborate on projects and problem-solve;
- Continue to work with the Vancouver Housing Authority and public housing residents to identify gaps in housing for households who are low-income and populations with special needs and develop housing programs to meet these needs; and
- Continue to plan and coordinate with Community Action Fund recipients via regular meetings and reports from providers. This has encouraged a close working relationship with various service providers throughout the county who are addressing poverty and homelessness issues.

The affordability period is as follows:

- Assistance less than $15,000 requires a 5-year affordability period;
- Assistance from $15,000 to $40,000 requires a 10-year affordability period; and
- Assistance over $40,000 requires a 15-year affordability period.

If the housing purchased with HOME assistance is sold, refinanced or no longer the principle residence prior to the end of the affordability period, the County expects to recapture the initial investment.

4. Plans for using HOME funds to refinance existing debt secured by multifamily housing that is rehabilitated with HOME funds along with a description of the refinancing guidelines required that will be used under 24 CFR 92.206(b), are as follows:

There are no plans to use HOME funds to refinance existing debt.
