

~PROCLAMATION~

Whereas, National Day of Remembrance for Homicide Victims was first declared in 1998 to recognize the devastating impact that a murder has on survivors; and

Whereas, the Clark County community supports efforts to protect, enhance, and expand crime victims' services and the participation of survivors in the justice process; and

Whereas, we value our right to be free from violence, to be safe in our homes, and to live in peace in our communities; and

Whereas, for the past 37 years the needs and rights of crime victims and survivors have been appropriately recognized;

Now, therefore, we the Clark County Council do hereby proclaim September 21, 2018 to be

~ Clark County Day of Remembrance for Homicide Victims ~

To honor homicide victims and those who remember them this day and throughout the year and urge all citizens and institutions, public and private to support the establishment and enforcement of victim rights and services throughout the Clark County community.

Dated this 21st day of September, 2018

COUNTY COUNCIL
FOR CLARK COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Marc Boldt, Chair

Jeanne E. Stewart, District 1

Julie Olson, District 2

John Blom, District 3

Eileen Quiring, District 4

