

~PROCLAMATION~

WHEREAS, Clark County is rich in beauty, possibilities and history, our greatest asset is our people, many of whom sacrifice time and energy for the common good; and

WHEREAS, people of all ages, backgrounds and walks of life can share their skills and talents through local community service organizations to improve life for all citizens, and

WHEREAS, volunteers meet needs in their communities by selflessly supporting health and human services, charities, schools, faith communities, vulnerable children, environmental protection, animals, public safety and disaster preparedness; and

WHEREAS, Clark County could not function without volunteers serving on our boards, commissions, task forces and committees, guiding policy and raising the livability of our communities, and

WHEREAS, through volunteering, people motivated by the simple satisfaction of helping their fellow citizens each day with acts of kindness large and small; and build networks of opportunity to lift up those around them.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Clark County Council, hereby proclaim April 7-13, 2019 as

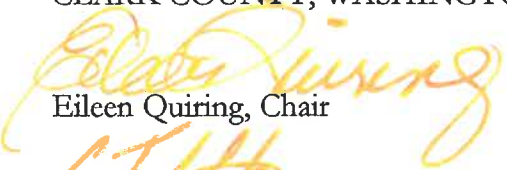

~National Volunteer Week~

in Clark County, Washington, and extend our appreciation to our legions of volunteers who exemplify many values we hold dear as Americans and help us become more giving, compassionate and engaged citizens.

Signed this 2nd day of April 2019

CLARK COUNTY COUNCIL
CLARK COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Eileen Quiring, Chair

Temple Lentz, District 1

Julie Olson, District 2

John Blom, District 3

Gary Medvagy, District 4