Special Meeting Notice Systemic Racism Listening Session (Session #1)

The Clark County Council and partner agencies YWCA Clark County, NAACP Vancouver, SW WA LULAC, and Clark County Volunteer Lawyers Program have scheduled three listening sessions to learn about how systemic racism has impacted residents of Clark County.

These sessions will be a part of informing the county's response to systemic racism and representing first steps in the county's effort to take action surrounding racial justice, systems inequities and structural racism in Clark County.

The first session is scheduled for Friday, July 31, 2020, 6pm. During this session representatives from the four partner agencies will share information and background on the impacts of systemic racism in Clark County as it pertains to their organizations. There will not be an opportunity for the public to share their experiences, either live or in the chat, during this webinar.
