February 13, 2018 Special Election Voter Registration Deadlines

Vancouver, WA – The last day to submit a mail-in voter registration form to be eligible to vote in the February 13 special election is Monday, Jan. 15.

Online registration applications can be submitted up to 11:59 pm Monday, Jan. 15. Visit the Elections Office website at clarkvotes.org and click on MyVote to register online.

Current registered voters who wish to change their address online must do so before midnight on Monday, Jan. 15, for the Feb. 13 special election. The Clark County Elections Office will be open until 5 pm Friday, Jan. 12, to accept address changes made by telephone or in person. The office will be closed on Monday, Jan. 15 in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

Citizens who are not currently registered to vote in the state of Washington have additional time and may register to vote by appearing in person at the Clark County Elections Office, 1408 Franklin Street, Vancouver through Monday, Feb. 5.

Only registered voters in city of Camas, Battle Ground School District, Evergreen School District and La Center School District will receive ballots for this election.

An online voters' guide will be available starting Jan. 11 by visiting the Elections Office website at clarkvotes.org.

A sample ballot listing all contests and ballot measures appearing on the Feb. 13 special election is now available on the Clark County Elections Office website at clarkvotes.org.
