April special election logic and accuracy test scheduled for March 20, 2018

Vancouver, WA – At 10 am on Tuesday, March 20, the Clark County Elections Office will conduct a logic and accuracy test of the programming to be used to tabulate ballots and the accessible voting units for the April 24 special election.

The test will be held at the Clark County Elections Office, 1408 Franklin St., Vancouver. Members of the news media, and jurisdictions with measures on the ballot and the public are invited to attend this test, which is required under Washington law.

Ballots will be mailed Friday, April 6.

For this election, only registered voters in Battle Ground School District will receive ballots.

At 6 pm Election Day, Tuesday, April 24, the process of entering the scanned ballot information into the ballot tabulation system will begin.

Election results will be available at or before 8:30 pm on the Auditor's website at clarkvotes.org.
