Chelatchie Prairie Rail Trail

18002 NE 249th St., Battle Ground, WA

The one-mile paved trail segment runs from the entrance road inside Battle Ground Lake State Park southwest along the Clark County Chelatchie Prairie Railroad. It is the first phase of a planned 33-mile cross county trail. The trail is ADA accessible and open to multiple user types, including pedestrians, bicyclists/scooters, equestrians and other users. No motorized vehicles permitted. Dogs on leash only.

Enjoy the scenic country side and large trees in this north country wonder. Future phases will connect the path from the park to Fairgrounds Park in east Battle Ground. The state park has a wide range of amenities including picnic shelters, camping, boating, hiking trails, playground, and restrooms. Visit their web page: parks.state.wa.us/472/Battle-Ground-Lake

Trail condition: Easy Moderate Difficult

Chelatchie Rail Trail Trailhead at Battle Ground Lake State Park

Directions:

From downtown Battle Ground, head north on Grace Ave (northeast Battle Ground), turn right on NE 10th St./ Heisson Rd. This turns into NE 244th Ave. / Palmer Rd. Turn left on NE 249th St. into Battle Ground Lake State Park. Parking on the left.

Facilities:

Multi-use trail asphalt surface Located in park: Trash cans Restrooms Potable water

Fees:

State park fees apply if parking at their lot

Hours of use:

Daylight hours only

Legend:

P Parking

Paved Trail

Access point

Restroom

Till restroom

Play area

Picnic tables

1/4 mile ,

1/2 mile |