Liability Release

I, _____(VOLUNTEER LEADER), and my volunteer group have agreed to assist Clark County Parks.

We volunteer our time and our service because of our desire to participate actively in the furtherance of improving our local county parks. We understand that our activities as volunteers may entail a risk of physical injury or death, and we may be exposed to hazards including, by way of illustration but not limitation; weather, travel over bodies of water, unimproved topographic hazards such as cliffs, ravines, caves, loose or falling rocks, poisonous insects, reptiles or plants, wild animals, fire (including intentionally set fires for biological management), actions of other participants, volunteers or citizens in the area who may not act responsibly and safely and, various other hazards including those associated with strenuous manual labor. We also understand the hazards inherent in commuting to and from the county parks for the purpose of the volunteer effort. We have discussed these hazards prior to commencing our volunteer work and understand and voluntarily assume all such risks of our own free will, as evidence by our signatures on the foregoing Volunteer list.

We agree to abide by all the rules and regulations of Clark County Parks regarding safety and use of any and all equipment. We understand that no drugs or alcoholic beverages are to be consumed during volunteer activities and that we will be asked to leave the premises if suspected to be under the influence of same.

On behalf of ourselves, our estates and personal representatives thereof, our heirs and assigns, we hereby forever release Clark County Parks, its officers, directors, employees and agents, from any and all costs, claims, losses, liabilities or damages arising from or in any way related to, our service as volunteers in the Clark County Parks events. We intend this release to be effective, regardless whether the claim of liability is asserted in negligence, strict liability or other theory of tort recovery. For ourselves, our estates and personal representatives thereof, our heirs and assigns, we covenant and agree to make no claim, nor to institute any suit, action or proceedings against Clark County, its officers, directors, employees and/or agents, relating to an accident, incident or occurrence arising out of or in connection with our volunteer activities.

By signing this release or the foregoing Volunteer list, we also agree that any sponsoring agencies may publish any photographs taken of the volunteer effort.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have discussed this Liability Release with my group prior to their affixing of signatures to the foregoing Volunteer list, and in doing so I and they have voluntarily executed this release as of _____, 20_____.
