Clark County Parks Advisory Board

Re: Lewis and Clark Trail

The Clark County Parks Advisory Board supports the process of completing the Lewis and Clark Greenway and trail, as a way to connect the communities of Southwest Washington together. The trail will add value to our communities, promote health and recreation and create connections with nature and history. We encourage local jurisdictions, non-profits, and citizens to come together to make this 47 mile trail a reality.