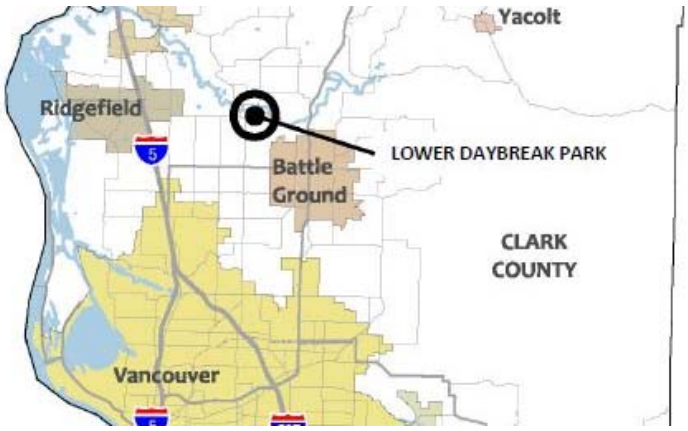
Lower Daybreak Park Trail Improvements

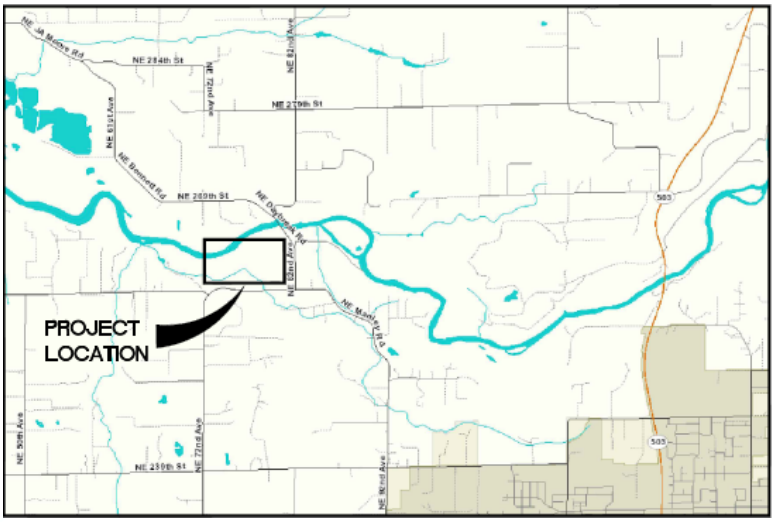
Clark County Public Works

Vicinity Map
Council District 2



The Lower Daybreak Park site is located at the corner of Northeast 259th Street and Northeast 82nd Avenue across from the existing Daybreak Park

Vicinity Map
Council District 2



Project Information

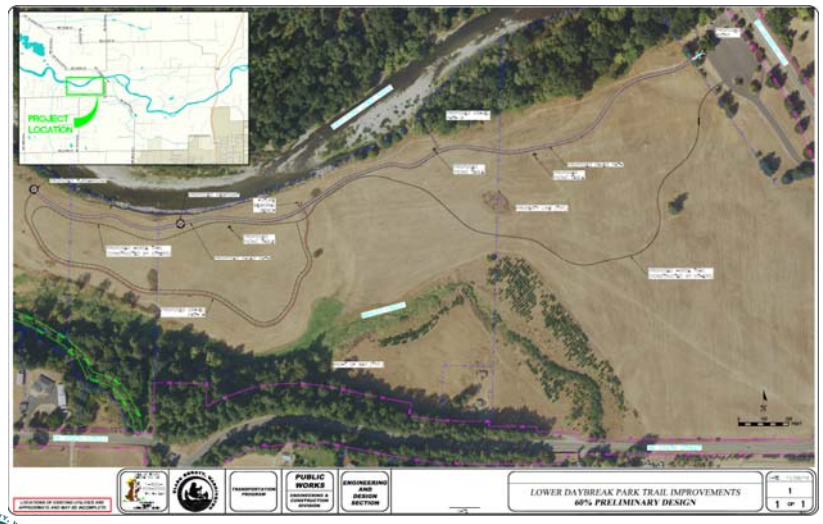
- Description –
  - Install over ¾ miles of multiuse paved and gravel trails with designated areas for views of the East Fork Lewis River
  - Install amenities such as benches and picnic tables.
  - Install access path to the East Fork Lewis River
  - Install accessible trailhead that connects to existing Daybreak Boat Launch Parking Lot
- Schedule –
  - Construction Summer 2020
- Funding –
  - $500K grant from Washington State Recreation and Conservation Office
- Website –
  - https://www.clark.wa.gov/public-works/lower-daybreak-trail-improvement-project
- Outreach (30% Concept)
  - Parks Advisory Meeting - Jul. 12th
  - Clark County Fair - Aug. 2nd - 11th
  - Open House – Aug. 20th
- Contact –
  - Sarah Smith, Project Manager Sarah.Smith@clark.wa.gov
  - Magan Reed, Sr. Communications Specialist Magan.Reed@clark.wa.gov

Current Project Status – 60% Design

- Description –
  - Relocated viewpoint to align with master plan and actual features at the site
  - Included horse trail for environmental permitting
  - Paved asphalt trail no longer pervious = lower construction cost and increased design benefits and constructability
- Schedule –
  - Submit applications for environmental permits and development review
- Funding –
  - 60% estimate is over budget for construction and currently looking at financial options
- Website –
  - https://www.clark.wa.gov/public-works/lower-daybreak-trail-improvement-project
- Outreach (60% Design)
  - Parks Advisory Meeting – Nov. 12th
- Contact –
  - Sarah Smith, Project Manager Sarah.Smith@clark.wa.gov
  - Magan Reed, Sr. Communications Specialist Magan.Reed@clark.wa.gov

2010 Illustrative Master Plan

60% Preliminary Design



Viewpoint – Concept Illustration

Includes cobblestone details for a unified theme with the shoreline of the East Fork Lewis River.

Turnaround – Concept Illustration

Similar to the Overlook, includes cobblestone details and concrete joint work.