Special Meeting Notice Systemic Racism Listening Session (Session #2)

The Clark County Council and partner agencies YWCA Clark County, NAACP Vancouver, SW WA LULAC, and Clark County Volunteer Lawyers Program have scheduled three listening sessions to learn about how systemic racism has impacted residents of Clark County.

These sessions will be a part of informing the county's response to systemic racism and representing first steps in the county's effort to take action surrounding racial justice, systems inequities and structural racism in Clark County.

The second session is scheduled for Wednesday, Aug. 12, 2020, 6pm. During this session members of the public are invited for a moderated opportunity to share their experiences and answer the questions, "How has systemic racism in Clark County impacted you?"

The public is invited to view session #2 in the following ways:

- Register at: <https://tinyurl.com/yyyy4s8j>
- Watch it live on CVTV (Comcast channel 23)
- Livestream from your personal computer, www.CVTV.org
