

~PROCLAMATION~

Whereas, "National Day of Remembrance for Homicide Victims" is designated on September 25th of each year to recognize the devastating impact that a murder has on surviving family members and friends; and

Whereas, we as a community support efforts to protect, enhance and expand crime victims' services and the participation of survivors in the justice process; and

Whereas, we value our right to be free from violence, to be safe in our homes, to live in peace in our communities and become a voice for the victim who can no longer speak for themselves; and

Whereas, for 39 years the needs and rights of crime victims and survivors have been appropriately recognized.

Now, therefore, we, the Clark County Councilors, hereby proclaim the 25th of September 2020 to be

~ National Day of Remembrance for Homicide Victims ~

In Clark County, Washington, to honor homicide victims and those who remember them this day and throughout the year, and urge all citizens and institutions, public and private, to support enforcement of victim rights and services throughout our community.

Dated this 15th day of September, 2020

CLARK COUNTY COUNCIL
FOR CLARK COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Eileen Quiring O'Brien, Chair

Temple Lentz, District 1

Julie Olson, District 2

John Blom, District 3

Gary Medvigy, District 4