

CLARK COUNTY COUNCIL
FORT VANCOUVER REGIONAL LIBRARY DISTRICT BOARD APPOINTMENT
SEPTEMBER 23, 2020

The Council convened at 10 a.m. via WebEx in order to vote on an open position to the Fort Vancouver Regional Library Board of Trustees – Position No. 7 representing Clark County. Councilors Lentz, Olson, Blom, and Quiring, Chair, present. Councilor Medvigy absent.

ACTION: Moved by Councilor Lentz to appoint Kelsi Gilkey to the Fort Vancouver Regional Library Board of Trustees. Motion seconded by Councilor Blom.

Discussion: Councilor Lentz commented that all the applicants were fantastic. She said that Kelsi had the educational background and training needed to grapple with current issues faced by the library. Also, she is a young mother who has grown up in Clark County and has ties here, she understands the library’s role in the community and is well situated to help the board as they move forward to determine the library’s role in the community for generations to come.

Councilor Olson thanked all the applicants, any of whom would have served well on the board. She felt that Kelsi’s youth and financial experience would serve the board well and that she will be a good addition to the board of trustees.

Chair Quiring stated that they had such good applicants and agreed that they all would have served the board well, but they can only pick one.

All aye/motion carried.
