

What are the symptoms of novel coronavirus?

Symptoms may appear 2-14 days after exposure to the virus. People with these symptoms may have COVID-19. This list does not include all possible symptoms.

fever or chills

cough

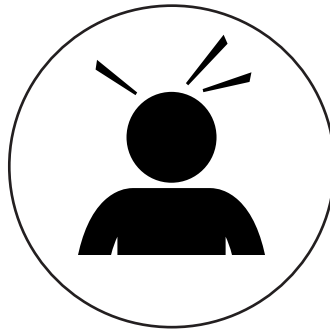

shortness of breath
or difficulty breathing

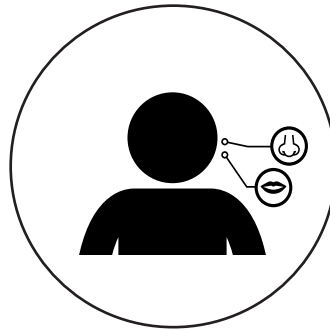

fatigue

congestion or runny nose

headache

new loss of
taste or smell

sore throat

muscle or
body aches

nausea or vomiting

diarrhea