Dear Youth Leader,

Hello! As members of the Clark County Youth Commission, we are seeking youth from all walks of life to join us. Our board consists of 30 youth from throughout Clark County who work closely with the Clark County Council, county departments and community organizations to:

- Advise and make recommendations about the work these groups do that affects our community. In the past, the county councilors have asked us to research workplace stress, youth happiness, youth violence prevention and community livability.
- Identify issues and concerns of youth and take action. Our group helps to target key issues within the community, and develop projects and recommendations that support or raise awareness of those issues.
- Provide leadership and community participation opportunities for youth. We offer our members fun and intensive leadership opportunities, beginning with a retreat each summer and continuing throughout the year. We also strive to create opportunities for youth throughout Clark County.
- Educate about how to build youth-adult partnerships. We share our successful experiences working with adult community groups to forge partnerships that ensure all voices are valued.

Between now and May 26, we are actively recruiting for Youth Commission members. We continuously strive to be more representative of the diversity of youth living in our county.

Currently, we are accepting applications to fill 11 vacancies throughout Clark County:

- All open positions are available for youth who live in Clark County.
- New Leader positions are available for youth with no previous leadership experience.
- We have some positions open to students living within the geographical boundaries of specific school districts.

Please feel free to use the enclosed materials and information to spread the word about the Youth Commission to youth in your school or community.

We appreciate your interest and want to let you know we are here to help. Please contact our program coordinator, Elizabeth Houston-Hill, at 564.397.5133 or Elizabeth.Hill@clark.wa.gov if you have any questions or need additional materials.

Thank you for your help and time,

The Clark County Youth Commission

CLARK COUNTY

COMMISSION

Clark County Youth Commission

Who are we?

We are a group of 30 youth, ages 11-19 (grades 6 and above). Eighteen positions are distributed across specific school district boundaries to ensure broad geographic representation, ten youth are at-large (meaning they can come from anywhere in the county), and two youth are new leaders. Members serve for a one-year term, but can recommit to serve multiple terms.

What do we do?

We actively serve as a voice for the youth in Clark County.

- We advise and make recommendations to the Clark County Council, county departments and community organizations about the work they do that relates to and affects youth.
- We identify issues and concerns important to youth, and take action on these issues and concerns.
- We educate the community about how to build strong youth-adult partnerships.
- We provide leadership opportunities for youth.

So you want to become a member?

To apply for a position on the Youth Commission, you need to complete an application and participate in an interview. But before you do, it's important to know what's expected of our members so you can make sure you have the time and make sure it is right for you!

An active Youth Commission member:

- Works on Youth Commission projects, assignments and subcommittees. We have special projects and assignments requiring time outside of regular meetings. We need each other's help to get work done. We require 6-12 hours of work each month.
- Participates in the meetings by voicing ideas and opinions, and being prepared. We know it takes time for some people to feel comfortable doing these kinds of things, so if you think you would like to but are not quite sure if you can, apply and we'll see if we can help you get there.
- Is a resource to the Youth Commission. Members contribute their skills and strengths to help get the work done.
- Represents the Youth Commission in the community and at their school. This could mean anything from addressing community groups about our work to getting information to and from students and teachers.
- Attends meetings, both regular and other, as agreed to and as scheduled. The regular meetings are on the first and third Thursday of each month from 6:45 to 8:45 pm, September through June. Special projects, assignments, and subcommittee work adds another 2-8 hours per month.

All applicants must be available for a video conference interview on either June 11 or June 12 and, if selected, attend a mandatory overnight retreat August 16-18.

If public health guidelines recommend differently, the retreat will not be overnight, but will still be mandatory.
