

COUNTY SEEKS APPLICANTS FOR THREE OPENINGS ON ANIMAL PROTECTION AND CONTROL BOARD

News Release from Clark Co. WA Communications

Posted on FlashAlert: October 25th, 2024 11:21 AM

Vancouver, Wash. – Clark County Manager Kathleen Otto is seeking applicants for three open positions on the volunteer Animal Protection and Control Advisory Board. All the openings are for terms that begin immediately and end Oct. 31, 2027.

The positions are for Clark County residents that represent:

- Veterinarian or veterinary technician
- No domestic animals
- Animal Welfare

Currently, advisory board members meet quarterly at 6:30 p.m. on the fourth Thursday of the month. Meetings are currently being held in person or virtually using the Microsoft Teams platform.

Functions of the 10-member board include:

- Reporting to the County Council at least once a year on general operations of the Animal Protection and Control Program
- Recommending potential changes to services modifications to code that will promote animal welfare and the most efficient animal services possible
- Promoting the program, including its licensing of all dogs and cats.

Applications and a résumé can be mailed to Animal Protection and Control, P.O. Box 9810, Vancouver, WA 98666-9810 or emailed to jacqueline.hoffman@clark.wa.gov.

For more about the board or to download an application, please go to www.clark.wa.gov/community-development/animal-control-advisory-board.

Application deadline is 5 p.m. Monday, Nov. 25, 2024.

Contact Info:

Jacqueline Hoffman, Program assistant, Animal Protection & Control, 564.397.2489,
jacqueline.hoffman@clark.wa.gov