Dear Senators Cleveland, Harris, Cortes, Braun; Representatives Stonier, Wylie, Stuebe, Waters, McClintock, Ley, Orcutt, & Abbarno:

The Clark County Council is writing you today to say thank you for all your work this legislative session. The council understands the challenge the legislature faced this session related to rising costs, budget deficits, and uncertainty related to federal funding, and is appreciative of the time and effort you all put forth for the constituents you represent. Clark County is thankful to have your support in Olympia, including funds to improve public safety, support clean water and lake health, continue critical infrastructure and roadway improvements, promote the safety and wellbeing of vulnerable county residents, and more.

The council looks forward to continuing to work collaboratively together to keep southwest Washington a wonderful place to work, recreate, and thrive.

Sincerely,

Sue Marshall
County Chair, District 5
