(Please provide names and email addresses for consultants.)

3. TIME FRAME

Length of time needed for staff presentation: 45 minutes

Desired date: Sept. 24, 2025

Scheduled date:

4. TIMING CONSIDERATIONS: We would like to get code changes in this year.

5. DESIRED RESULTS: Review code changes, answer questions, support the code changes to help the department with animal welfare issues in the community.

6. IMPACTS (COMMUNITY/FINANCIAL/STAFF/OTHER): Code changes affect the animals and people of Clark County and need to be updated to allow the community and department to work better together through clarity and understanding.

7. POLICY IMPLICATIONS: Some of the requested changes will affect cats in the community through definitions; others will affect late fee assessment; create spay/neuter incentives with recognition that Clark County has very limited resources for spay/neuter; updates some existing errors in code; adds code to assist with livestock at-large cases to include fencing as a suitable structure; facility requirements to keep vaccine records; definition of facility to be more broad and encompass existing businesses that do not fit the current requirement.

8. ISSUES TO BE CONSIDERED: Currently, we are not aware of any disagreements/issues.

9. RECOMMENDED ACTION: To support the code changes as shown or as updated after giving their input/opinion.
