

CLARK COUNTY, COLLABORATING CITIES, AND ORGANIZATIONS SEEK VOLUNTEERS FOR ECHO (ENDING COMMUNITY HOMELESSNESS ORGANIZATION)

News Release from Clark Co. WA Communications

Posted on FlashAlert: September XX, 2025

Vancouver, Wash. – The Clark County, participating cities, and community stakeholders are recruiting for two volunteers to join a collaborative policy group addressing the issue of homelessness in the community known as ECHO (Ending Community Homelessness Organization).

The recruitment is for individuals with recent lived experience with homelessness in Clark County. Volunteer term length will be approximately 12 months, with opportunities for subsequent extensions.

The Ending Community Homelessness Organization (ECHO) consists of leaders from Clark County, its cities, and other key Clark County community stakeholders. ECHO exists as a forum to consider homelessness comprehensively and holistically with the goal of identifying possible gaps and opportunities for further coordination and investment.

This group meets regularly the second Tuesday of every month from 9:30 – 11:00 a.m. at The Public Service Center, located at, 1300 Franklin Street, 6th Floor, Suite 680; Vancouver, WA 98660.

Anyone interested in applying should send a letter of interest to Michelle Pfenning, PO Box 5000, Vancouver, WA 98666-5000 or michelle.pfenning@clark.wa.gov.

Application deadline is 5 pm Friday, October XX, 2025.

Contact Info:

Michelle Pfenning, Council Administrative Assistant

Phone: 564-397-5109

Email: michelle.pfenning@clark.wa.gov